PLANS COMPLETE FOR RALLY

Thirty-Six True Bills Were Returned By The Grand Jury During Term

THREE INDICTMENTS IN ELECTION CASES

THREE BILLS ARE RETURNED BY GRAND JURY

Indictments on two charges of miscalling election returns were returned against W. D. Carroll by the Grand Jury at Comanche Friday and an indictment on a similar charge was returned Tuesday. His bond was set at $1500 in each case and was immediately executed.

Carroll had been under a $750 bond since early September awaiting the action of the grand jury. The charge of fraudulent canvass of ballots grew out of a recount of ballots in Box No. 1, at Comanche, by the Democratic Executive Committee when that body met at Comanche a week after the August run-off primary to canvass the returns.

Mr. Carroll is said to have been the caller at that box in both the July and August primaries.

In the original returns as certified by the election judges of that box, W. D. Sturkie was certified as having carried the box for Tax Collector and B. J. Pittman for County Judge. H. L. Stewart, run-off candidate with Pittman for County Judge, made an oral charge before the Executive Committee of fraud in his canvass and asked that the Committee open the ballot box and recount the vote. This was done and it is said to have shown a discrepancy of approximately 300 votes in favor of Stewart which change in the vote gave him a majority vote in the county and he was declared the nominee instead of Pittman who had apparently won on the face of unofficial returns.

Following the discovery of a discrepancy in the judges votes the committee then recounted the entire ballot for that one box. A discrepancy of approximately 300 votes were found in favor of Mrs. B. W. Speed, giving her a majority over W. D. Sturkie, candidate for Tax Collector, who had apparently defeated her on the face of the unofficial returns. Irregularities were also found in the count of votes in the box for the office of the Legislature, Justice of Peace, Tax Assessor, and Commissioner. The irregularities were not enough however to change the outcome of the races. The Criminal Court docket will be taken up at Comanche Monday and a date for the election fraud trial is expected to be set at that time and the case will likely come to trial some time during the week of the 14th, it is said.

Bullington For Governor Rally Planned Monday

A Bullington for Governor Rally will be held at Comanche at four o'clock Monday according to George Black.

INDIANS WIN FROM BULLDOGS

Staging a ninety yard drive in the closing minutes of the game for their second touchdown, the Comanche Indians overcame a one point lead and defeated the Hamilton High School Bull Dogs, 13 to 7 at the Hamilton Fair Park Friday afternoon. The drive was the most vicious put on by the Indians this year and was not accomplished by a hectic wild passing attack in a last minute desperate effort to win, but was made by a series of end runs and line plunges and passes behind almost perfect interference and blocking. The touchdown was made by Waldrop, who surrounded by three Hamilton men, leaped high in the air to take a pass from Marshall on the fourth down from the five yard line.

Comanche took the lead early in the second quarter when Masters went through the line for three yards and a touchdown. Marshall failed on a place kick for extra point and the score stood six to 0 until five minutes before the game was over when Hamilton scored on a 20 yard pass and then on a fake place kick passed for the extra point, putting them in the lead.

The game was the first time this year that the Indians have shown any real power on the offense and played a good defensive game.

Hamilton placed a small but hard fighting and well trained team on the field and the two teams played on fairly even terms until the Comanche team woke up and found themselves behind. The Indians made 16 first downs to the Bull Dogs 11. Comanche tried 15 passes and completed 9 for 114 yards. None were intercepted. Hamilton tried 14 passes, four were completed for 35 yards, seven were intercepted, and three failed. Captain Hood of the Indians did not start the game on account of an injury to his knee.

The Game—First Quarter. Comanche kicked off and recovered on the Hamilton 25 yard line. Masters made 2. Marshall 3. A pass over the goal line failed, the ball going to Hamilton on their 20 yard line.

Jones went around end for 12. The Bulldogs lost 5 on two tries at the line and punted. Marshall returned 15 yards to midfield.

Masters made 4. Marshall 3. Hamilton penalized 5, giving the Indians a first down. A pass failed. Marshall hit the line for 5. Masters failed to gain at end and Marshall punted out on the 9 yard line.

Hamilton kicked out of bounds on their own 33 yard line.

GUSTINE MAN IS KILLED AS GUN FALLS

Mack O'Dell, 70, Gustine, was accidentally shot and killed while gathering pecans two and a half miles north of Gustine about 1:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon, according to information received at Comanche shortly after the accident.

According to the report, Mr. O'Dell and his son-in-law, Cecil Moore left home shortly after noon to gather pecans, taking a shot gun with them.

The gun which was leaning against a tree was knocked down and discharged when Moore accidentally dropped a stick from up in the tree where he was threshing pecans, the discharge striking Mr. Odell, who was picking up the nuts, in the breast. He died within a few minutes.

Time for the funeral services which will be held at Board Church Cemetery had not been announced Thursday.

Mr. O'Dell is a brother of J. E. O'Dell of Brysonville and an uncle of Jesse O'Dell of Comanche.

Mr. O'Dell had lived in and near Gustine for about forty years. Mrs. O'Dell died sixteen years ago.

He is survived by the following children: Mrs. Cecil Moore and Mrs. Paris Isham. Gustine; Mrs. Bascomb Redwine, Fort Worth; Homer O'Dell, Throckmorton; Wallace and Buster O'Dell, of Plainview and Joe O'Dell, Turkey.

Low Carb Diet Helps Women

"Mal-nutrition" means that your body is not getting enough to keep it up, so that what it has to do is to do it well. You may not be eating enough to keep up the work of the body, or there may be something wrong that keeps you from getting the value from the food you eat.

Because of mal-nutrition, some women have aches and pains every month. Such pains should not be dreaded.

Take Cardul to give you a better appetite, to give you more strength and the food you eat - to build up and increase your feeling of well-being. Aches and pains go away as you build up with the help of Cardul.

ENTERTAIN WITH HALLOWEEN DINNER

Misses Vada Bell Simmons and Alice Hayes, assisted by Mrs. John Reese entertained Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Reese with a dinner bridge. Baskets of marigolds, Halloween decorations and table appointments, carried out a color scheme of gold and black.

Honor guests were Misses Lois Stamper and Miss Helen Bower of Brownwood. The following menu served in a three course dinner, featured the refreshments: Fruit cocktail, chicken-ala-king, in Swedish timbale cases, buttered peas, sweet potato croquettes, curled celery, crystallized pickles, moulded carrot and pineapple salad, pinwheel cookies, orange Bavarian cream, coffee and candies.

Interest was added to the bridge games by original rules, these varying with each game. High score was made by Miss Minnie Cunningham and high cut won by Mrs. Walter Barrett. Hand painted silhouettes were also presented to the honor guests. Miss Minnie Elkins was presented a decorated ash tray for low score. The guest list included: Misses Lois Stamper, and Helen Bower of Brownwood; Misses Iva Hart, Minnie Elkins, Inez Sullivan, Minnie Cunningham, Hattie Brightman, Jeanne Rape, Anne Coleman, Nobia Dunn, Berta Goodson, Cordie Lindsey; Mesdames W. FORMER COMANCHE LADY HAS EYESIGHT RESTORED

Mrs. E. Talbott, 88, a resident of Corpus Christi since July, 1891, and who has been totally blind for eight years, recently underwent an operation for the removal of a cataract from her left eye, and is now able to see.

The operation was unusual in several respects inasmuch as it was performed under a local anesthetic, the patient being conscious all during the operation, and inasmuch as Mrs. Talbott is so advanced in years.

When the cataract was removed, Mrs. Talbott observed, "I see fingers moving and I see between the fingers." She had reference to the hands of the attending physician.

"There is nothing so glorious as being able to see God's beautiful world, my children, and grandchildren and friends, after all these years of darkness," Mrs. Talbott said.

"Many changes have taken place since I became blind; the Port in particular; because making Corpus Christi a deep water port was discussed from the time I reached Corpus Christi from Brownwood and Comanche, Texas, during the Ropes boom until it materialized in 1926, at which time I was unable to see, and I am looking forward to seeing ships arrive here," Mrs. Talbott said.

Members of her family are her daughters, Mrs. J. J. Patrick and Miss Minnie Talbott of Corpus Christi; Mrs. John Davis, Sr., Ansley, Neb., and a son, Richard Lee Talbott of Mineola, Texas.—Corpus Christi Times-Caller.

Begin Taking Cardui Today If You Suffer Like This Lady Did

"WHEN I was a girl, I began taking Cardui," writes Mrs. Maggie Stanfield, of Crandall, Ga. "I was very irregular for twelve months. Nothing did me very much good until my mother began to give me this medicine. Then I got all right, stout and well."

"After I was married, I was in bad health. I began taking Cardui again. I was troubled with my back a lot. Was awfully restless. I could not sleep well. I just weighed 90 pounds when I began taking Cardui. I improved rapidly. Before long I weighed 126 pounds. I felt fine. I was able to do a good day's work."

WHAT HAS HAPPENED
 Breaking a window as an instrument of luring in jail, which is a desperate measure taken to prevent herself from starving, Jeanie Gregg, jobless for many weeks, finds herself in the hands of a handsome Radio Detective. The policeman, seeing that she is not a hardened criminal, takes an interest in her, gives her a bed in his apartment and a job in a show. Fern Cavan, leading lady of the show, loses her position when she reveals a burst of temper. Brian Murphy, the detective, tells Jeanie, after the show begins its run, that now that she can afford it she should take a flat for herself. She reluctantly moves across the hall from him. Brian proceeds to neglect her entirely. At first she waits patiently for him to take her out but finally, unable to stand it any longer, she consents to being Val French's, ex-girl to Fern Cavan, mistress.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY
 They got in a cab and drove over to Jeanie's flat. Val looked around the rooms with evident disgust. "Nice view, Jeanie," he said ironically. "An alley! How've you stood it? No sunshine—no air—dirty, too." He waxed enthusiastically. "You're going to live high, Jeanie—the twenty-second floor!—with a terrace for sun baths." He gathered her in his arms. She freed herself with a little smile. "Wait, Val." She turned to resume her packing. "How's it sound, Jeanie? The joint I mean?" She hesitated. "Val, let's go somewhere—first. I've never been around like a Follies girl! Do you know I haven't been on a party since I joined the show?" Val's eyes gleamed as he stretched his arms out toward her. "Nobody's taken you out—but me, sweetheart!"

"I don't like that guy!" said Brian angrily (Posed by Charles Bickford and Helen Chandler)

"I want to tear up the town, too!" he said vehemently. "I want some girls to tell—like the other girls, 'let's go places!' She snapped the bag shut and looked around the room contemptuously. "I've got all I want from this joint." She turned to Val with a hard smile. "I'm going to spend lots of your money, Val. Come on, let's start writing checks."

As she ran joyfully from the room she ran face to face with Brian who was just coming up the stairs. He had a happy expression in his face which vanished quickly, however, when he saw Val.

Jeanie tried to appear casual. "Hello, Brian."

"Jeanie!" he said. "I came by to tell you something funny—"

Brian looked swiftly from Jeanie to Val. "I want to see you a moment," he told her.

She made a quick resolve. So he wanted to play the role of protector, did he? After neglecting her so shamelessly he was to try to protect her? Well, she'd tell him she gave her bag to Val. Go on town. I'll be down in a minute."

"Sure?"

"Sure!"

Val smiled at her, shot a brief questioning look at Brian, and clattered down the stairs.

"Who is he?" asked Brian abruptly.

"Val French," she said saucily. "Know him, Mr. Policeman?"

"No. Do you?"

"For a long time."

"What are you doing with him?" he demanded.

Jeanie smiled sweetly. "He's fun—he's charming—he loves me."

"You're leaving here?"

She looked at him defiantly. "Why not?"

"I don't like that guy," said Brian angrily.

"That's too bad," retorted Jeanie, her eyes flashing, "but not important—to him or to me."

Brian looked decidedly uncomfortable. "When did it happen?"

"It began the night you told me how to get on in the world."

Brian opened his mouth to speak then didn't. Jeanie suddenly brushed past him and started down the stairs.

"I'm taking your advice at last," she called back over her shoulder.

HOW THE VOTES WENT IN YEARS PAST

At the General Election four years ago, 2800 votes were cast in Comanche County for President. Hoover received 1517 and Smith 1283. Hoover carried 19 boxes, Smith 12 and the vote was split at Van Dyke and Mercer Gap.

Smith carried both Comanche boxes, No. 1 by 217 to 163 and No. 2 by 198 to 192. Hoover's biggest majority was at Gustine where he received 120 to 48.

The vote at the other boxes, the first group of figures being for Hoover, were: Hasse 47-10; Soda Springs 25-7; Dingler 22-8; Fleming 18-31; Energy 21-6; Lamkin 46-35; Macksville 13-5; Hazel Dell 7-24; Wilson 6-17; Proctor 83-48; Comyn 9-17; DeLeon No. 15, 175-126; Downing 24-27; Duster 28-22; Rucker 43-13; Sipe Springs 33-73; Shrum 19-14; Bibb 11-8; Sidney 91-52; Whitville 9-30; Mercer Gap. 15-15; Brushy Gap 9-10; Newburg 59-24; Beattie 29-21; Indian Mountain 3-16; Robinson Springs 32-17; Suez 10-6; Van Dyke 23-23; Gap 10-26; DeLeon No. 33, 122-104.

The vote in Texas in 1928 was Hoover 367,036; Smith 341,032. The normal Republican vote in Texas that year was around 125,000. W. H. Holmes, candidate for governor received 120,504 to 582,972 votes for Moody. T. M. Kennerly received 129,910 votes for U. S. Senate against 566,139 for Tom Connally, Democratic nominee.

In 1924 when Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson was the Democratic nominee for Governor she defeated George C. Butte, Republican nominee by 124,013. Butte was Ferguson 422,059; Ahe vote was 298,046.

The nearest a Republican ever came to being elected Governor of Texas since E. J. Davis retired in 1873 was in 1896 when J. C. Kearby, who was also supported by the Populists, received 238,692 as compared to 298,528 votes for C. A. Culbertson, Democratic nominee who was re-elected.

Forty years ago, Hogg, Clarke and Nugent staged one of the warmest campaigns in the history of the State. J. S. Hogg, Democrat, seeking re-election received 190,486; George Clarke, Independent Democrat received 133,395 and T. L. Nugent, Populist, 108,483. Two years later, in 1894, C. A. Culbertson, Democrat was elected Governor but received less than half the 422,716 votes cast. The vote was Culbertson, 207,167; Nugent 152,731; W. K. Makemson, Republican received 54,520, with three minor candidates getting smaller votes.

Fifty years ago, John Ireland, Democrat, was elected by less than 50,000 majority, receiving 150,809 to 102,501 cast for Geo. W. Jones, Greenback.

The closest race on record was in 1861 when F. R. Lubbock defeated Edward Clark by 124 votes. The vote was Lubbock 21,854; Clark, 21,730 and T. J. Chambers 13,759.

Another close race was in 1869 when E. J. Davis received 39,901 and A. L. Hamilton 39,092.

The heaviest vote ever cast at a general election in Texas was in 1924 when 720,105 votes were polled as compared to 703,123 in the first primary of that year and 729,770 in the run-off primary.

In 1922 when George E. B. Peddy, Republican nominee, made an active campaign for the U. S. Senate against Earle B. Mayfield, the vote was Mayfield 264,260 and Peddy 130,744.

The little girl isn't quite herself, officer," said Val slyly. He took a card from his pocket and wrote on it. "I'll give you my card and our new address. Naturally, I'll be responsible for any damages." He handed the card to Brian, who took it mechanically. Val continued smoothly. "Meantime, I think I'd better get her home."

"Yes," said Brian, disregarding him. "She'd better go home." He motioned Jeanie toward the police car. "Get in."

"Oh, no," she protested gently. "I've moved out." She slipped her arm through Val's. "You must come and see us sometime."

"Jeanie, you don't want to do this."

"You gave me advice and I'm taking it. What's more—I like it."

"You're drunk!"

She drew herself up to her full height. "And how are you?"

"Jeanie, for the last time—"

"For the last time, mind your own business!" she cut in, losing her temper. "You've shown me plainly all along that what I did didn't matter a hoot to you! My life's my own from now on, and I'll do what I like with it!" She turned to Val. "Come, Val, dear!"

She stamped her foot angrily as she analyzed the look Brian was giving her.

"And you needn't look at me like that, I don't care what you think of me!"

Val turned to Brian. "Good night, Officer."

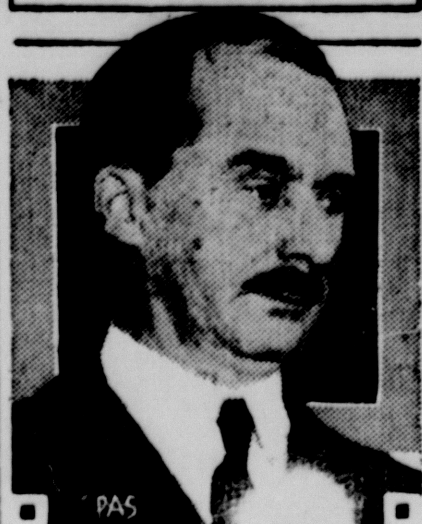

They got in the cab, and the nervous driver tried to get out from under the watchful eye of the law in discreet haste.

LET US SHOW YOU

THERE'S more to being in the tire business than just selling tires. We want customers to come back a second time—then keep coming back.

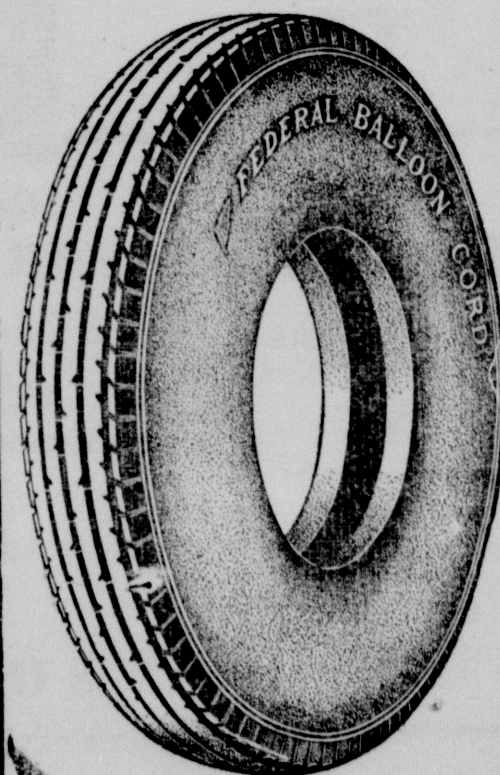

We sell tires that will "stand the gaff" of today's driving—tires that will stay on your wheels for longer mileage than you ever expected and give you better riding than you ever thought possible.

That's the reason we sell Federals. They're tires we can recommend, tires that we can stand back of. Our reputation is back of Federals—that's why we say, "Let us show you."

FEDERAL Extra Service Tires

Our interest just begins when we sell you a tire—after that we want to help you get the greatest possible amount of service out of it. We absolutely guarantee that you, as a purchaser of FEDERAL TIRES, will receive the mileage you may reasonably expect.

THE GREATEST "BARGAIN"
OF ALL BARGAINS
IS YOUR TELEPHONE

If you bought some tool for your house, you might ask "How many uses has it?" And if you received the answer "A thousand," you wouldn't believe it, would you?
Yet, did you ever stop to think that your telephone has many, many thousands of uses? Everything you do, and everything you have, is influenced in some way or some manner by the telephone. It is your modern "Aladdin's Lamp"—an instrument of untold worth, always awaiting your slightest command.

Whenever anyone talks about values, remember that the greatest of all bargains is your telephone.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES

It would be an ungrateful pastor, superintendent and corps of teachers and officers, if they did not appreciate the fine spirit manifested on the part of the student body of our Sunday School just now. But the great danger confronting us at this point is, that we may become satisfied and cease to press the work of the school. With a grateful heart for the present achievement, it is only an incentive to go on in the work of teaching.

I am sorry for the person who has never had the thrill of seeing a squad of school boys seeking to carry a ball towards a goal, paying no attention to interferences and obstructions. There is something in us that just will lift us from our seats. But oh, the shock when we see that squad in which we are so vitally interested fall back several yards. I felt that shock last Sunday when we lost twenty eight members. May I not ask, Hold that line, and go on to the goal and make a touchdown.

We are now on the last week of our Conventional year. May I as your pastor count on every member of the church doing their best for the cause so dear to your hearts. The mission cause is a worthy cause. It is the cause of our Lord and Master. He is our example and example. It is for his glory that we are seeking to do the work of evangelizing the world. Was there ever a more worthy or laudable cause?

Christ saved us not for our sakes alone. But through us, he might save others. Did he not say, Ye are the light of the world. Ye are the salt of the earth. For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? Our business as a church, is to send them.

No sooner than Paul was converted, he was commissioned. He was not disobedient to his commission. It was not an easy task to which Paul was called. Many difficulties confronted him. But in the midst of difficulties, he proved himself a man. The purview of Christ is to the end of the world. There is no confines to His love. His love is all-inclusive. His task is big enough to attract the most ambitious. It is simple enough to interest the most timid. There is work for all. And oh what a day is coming when all will do their work!

"We grovel among trifles. And our spirits fret and toss. While above us burns the vision, Of the Christ upon the Cross; The blood of God is streaming From his pierced hands and side, The lips of God are saying, 'Tell my brothers I have died.'"

O voice of God, we hear Thee speak Above the shock of time; Thine echoes still around us roll, The message is sublime; No power of man shall thwart us, No stronghold shall dismay, When God commands obedience And love has led the way."

Gordon Barrett, Pastor.

Miss Mary Doyle of Brownwood spent the week end in Comanche with relatives.

George Neel of Cross Plains was in Comanche Sunday enroute from Gustine and was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Alex Neel, who returned to Cross Plains with him for a visit.

OLD FOLKS SAY
WAS RIGHT

The basis of treating sickness has not changed since Dr. Caldwell left Medical College in 1875, nor since he placed on the market the laxative prescription he had used in his practice.

He treated constipation, biliousness, headaches, mental depression, indigestion, sour stomach and other indispositions entirely by means of simple vegetable laxatives, herbs and roots. These are still the basis of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, a combination of aenna and other mild herbs, with pepsin.

The simpler the remedy for constipation, the safer for the child and for you. And as you can get results in a mild and safe way by using Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, why take chances with strong drugs?

A bottle will last several months, and all can use it. It is pleasant to the taste, gentle in action, and free from narcotics. Elderly people find it ideal. All drug stores have the green bottle, or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. B. B. Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.

QUICKER, BETTER
RELIEF from use of Black-Draught

"I have taken Black-Draught, off and on when needed, for twenty-five years, for it is easy to take," writes Mr. George T. Wharton, of Petersburg, Va. "I take it for constipation and when I have that dull, tired feeling. I take it for colds and other complaints where a good laxative is needed, and I believe it gives me quicker and better relief than any other medicine I know. It certainly has been a help to me."

P.S.—If you have CHILDREN, give them the new, pleasant-tasting SYRUP of Theodor's Black-Draught.

A physician watched the results of constipation for 47 years, and believed that no matter how careful people are of their health, diet and exercise, constipation will occur from time to time. Of next importance, then, is how to treat it when it comes. Dr. Caldwell always was in favor of getting as close to nature as possible, hence his remedy for constipation, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is a mild vegetable compound. It can not harm the system and is not habit forming. Syrup Pepsin is pleasant-tasting, and youngsters love it.

Dr. Caldwell did not approve of drastic physics and purges. He did not believe they were good for anybody's system. In a practice of 47 years he never saw any reason for their use when Syrup Pepsin will empty the bowels just as promptly. Do not let a day go by without a bowel movement. Do not sit and hope, but go to the nearest drugstore and get one of the generous bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, or write "Syrup Pepsin," Dept. BB, Monticello, Illinois, for free trial bottle.

HERRING MAKES HIS LAST PLEA

Bring your pencils with you next Tuesday, for you will have to do a lot of marking out of names. Mark out the name of George W. Rollins, Democratic nominee for Representative, and wife W. G. Herring in the column for independent candidates, if you want me to represent you in the next legislature. Either he or I will represent you at Austin next winter and it is up to you to make your choice between us. I am leaving my part up to the people to use their best judgment.

You have the highest authority of the law in regard to the nominee question. There is no law to make you vote for any certain nominee. The courts say you can follow your own choice and no one will question you and your vote will have to be counted. So with all the evidence before you, you are not bound to anybody and just now you have a chance to vote for one who will surely look after your interest.

If I do not win this fight, I am going to come again, if I live. If I am your representative I am going to find out and tell you why it is so hard to get anything done in the Legislature.

Go and vote early and come out and tell your friends what kind of a ballot it is. There are six parties and a space for independents and it will take some time to vote.

There will be an election officer there to give you any information you want. It is up to you, so do me all the good you can and tell your friends what to do.

W. G. HERRING (Adv.)
